DEAR MSU ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Vast untamed wilderness, cliffs of pale blue-tinged ice, Native American cultures, rugged remote towns, amazing wildlife—this is Alaska, America’s last frontier. Revel in its wild, unspoiled beauty as you sail its coastline aboard Oceania Cruises’ Regatta. Depart from Seattle and follow the Inside Passage along Canada’s scenic western coast to Alaska and the small wilderness outpost of Ketchikan, known as the “Salmon Capital of the World.” Next is Alaska’s capital, Juneau, an exhilarating blend of nature and modern culture. Marvel at the spectacular Hubbard Glacier, the longest tidewater glacier in Alaska and visit Icy Strait Point, a seaport nestled in the lush, seemingly endless northern forest. Continue to Sitka, an astoundingly picturesque city known for its many historic attractions, then cruise onward to Wrangell, one of the oldest settlements in Alaska. Sail south to Canada’s lovely city, Victoria, a former British colony that has retained much of its colonial splendor, before returning to Seattle.

An Oceania Cruises voyage is a truly unique and unforgettable experience. The graceful 684-passenger Regatta combines elegance with exceptional intimacy and offers every indulgence imaginable. Whether dining on gourmet cuisine considered the finest at sea, absorbing an interesting guest lecture, listening to a classical string quartet, or unwinding in your spacious, well-appointed stateroom or suite, the inviting Regatta is a rewarding and relaxing retreat at sea.

With such an outstanding ship and popular itinerary, this cruise will fill up quickly. Space is limited, so you are encouraged to sign up now for your preferred stateroom or suite. Also, the incredible offers of 2-for-1 cruise fares with free airfare and $1,500 savings per stateroom are only available until November 15, 2012. Don’t miss the opportunity to experience traveling with fellow alumni on this memorable voyage.

JUL 12 SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
Arrive, board the ship, depart 5 pm
Embark on your luxury cruise aboard Regatta in Seattle, Washington's waterfront city and home of the famed Space Needle.

JUL 13 CRUISING THE INSIDE PASSAGE
Cruise the Inside Passage along Canada's scenic west coast into Alaska's more sheltered Inside Passage, a stunning waterway dotted with countless islands and edged by pristine forests and mountains.

JUL 14 KETCHIKAN, ALASKA
Arrive 10 am – Depart 6 pm
Built around salmon canneries and sawmills, Ketchikan was once proclaimed the “Salmon Capital of the World.” Its unique culture is celebrated through its renowned collection of totem poles, an accolade to Native art. Situated at the foot of Deer Mountain, Ketchikan is backed by steep, forested slopes and fringed by a pristine waterfront, creating an impossibly beautiful backdrop. Not far in the distance is the Tongass National Forest, the nation's largest, abundant with wildlife and the peaceful aura of the North Country.

JUL 15 JUNEAU, ALASKA
Arrive 1 pm – Depart 10 pm
Founded in 1880, when Joe Juneau and Richard Harris struck gold, the thriving town of Juneau offers an eclectic mix of people and pastimes. This is the capital of Alaska, but politics is only a small part of the experience here. Its downtown streets feature upscale shopping blended with authentic Alaskan totems and art, while spectacular mountain scenery stuns from every angle. The famous Mendenhall Glacier is just outside town, and in the surrounding wilderness, even a casual observer may spot bald eagles, humpback whales and perhaps a black bear.

JUL 16 CRUISING THE HUBBARD GLACIER
A journey to Alaska would not be complete without viewing the majestic Hubbard Glacier. As Alaska's longest tidewater glacier, its unrivaled proportions stretch over six miles creating dramatic vistas of sparkling blue ice. As the towering glacier moves and calves, crashing chunks of ice fall into the bay creating a sound called 'white thunder' by the Tlingit people.

JUL 17 ICY STRAIT POINT (HOONAH), ALASKA
Arrive 8 am – Depart 6 pm
Wilderness and tribal traditions intertwine in Icy Strait Point. Its notable cannery dates back to 1930, offering a glimpse into Alaska's more recent history, while bears, eagles and humpback whales make up a population that outnumbers everyone. Just over a mile away, is culturally-rich Hoonah, a Tlingit fishing village for hundreds of years and home to the largest Native settlement in Alaska.
Historically significant and vibrantly multicultural, Sitka is not only the storyteller of some of the state's most compelling history, but breathtakingly beautiful as well. First called Shee Atika by the Tlingit Indians, and then New Archangel by the Russians who ousted them, this city claims itself the cultural center of southeast Alaska. Its fascinating museums house some of the state's oldest native culture collections, while the Sitka National Historical Park boasts totem-lined forest trails and authentic artisan exhibits.

Situated near the mouth of the Stikine River, this small and friendly city still honors its dramatic past. Once a Tlingit Indian stronghold, then a Russian settlement, later a British trading post, and ultimately purchased by the U.S., Wrangell commemorates the changes it has endured. Its museum offers insight into the three gold rushes that transformed the area and a glimpse of its native past can be found at a traditional Tlingit tribal house.

Cruise the Outside Passage through the open blue waters of the Pacific Ocean.

Rich with British heritage and overflowing with cosmopolitan charm, Victoria is a town where High Tea and world-class flower gardens are part of everyday life. Here in Western Canada's oldest city, Victorian and Edwardian-era mansions stand near elegant shops offering the latest in European fashion. Many viewpoints, including Dallas Road, offer breathtaking views of the waterfront, perfect for drinking in the surreal beauty of the surrounding mountains and ocean.

Disembark in the morning and bid farewell to Regatta.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above. Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions, available for purchase approximately four months prior to departure.

Oceania Cruises may modify the cruise itinerary up to and during the voyage. All air, cruise and land accommodations, local transportation, and optional shore excursions are arranged by Oceania Cruises, who may use other suppliers or providers to render the services. The agreement in this brochure is the exclusive and entire statement of the agreement between you and Go Next, Inc. It should be read carefully.

Global Destinations Management, Ltd. and Go Next, Inc. are not responsible for injuries or losses resulting from any causes beyond their own respective and exclusive control. Global Destinations Management, Ltd. and Go Next, Inc. are not responsible for the negligence of the other or any other suppliers or providers. All pre-cruise land accommodations, local transportation, and sightseeing are arranged and operated by Alcatraz Media, who may use other suppliers or providers to render the services. Itinerary is subject to change.

OPTIONAL SEATTLE PRE-CRUISE PROGRAM

- 1 night’s accommodation at the Renaissance Seattle hotel or similar with breakfast
- Sightseeing excursion of Seattle
- Professional guide
- Exclusive Go Next program manager/hospitality desk
- Transfers between the hotel and cruise ship with related luggage handling

JUL 11 Arrive in Seattle, Washington and make your own way to the Renaissance Seattle Hotel or similar. Remainder of the day at leisure.

JUL 12 See the highlights of exciting Seattle on a half-day tour, before transferring to Regatta in the afternoon. Enjoy a panoramic drive through Seattle, including the popular Waterfront, the hub of many Puget Sound attractions, and Pioneer Square where you’ll find some of the city’s oldest buildings. Continue to famed Pike Place Market, home to the first Starbucks coffee shop and renowned for its fish sellers, produce markets and craft stalls. See the Ballard Locks, the second largest locks in the U.S.; the giant Fremont Troll, lurking beneath the Aurora Bridge; and the famous Sleepless in Seattle floating home. Take in fascinating neighborhoods like the Chinatown-International District, Queen Anne and Fremont, and travel up the celebrated Space Needle for magnificent views of the city from its $20-foot-high observation deck, and more. (Motor coach tour with a light amount of walking.)
