Dear Alumni and Friends:

Mysterious China and enchanting Tibet—two lands whose stunning beauty form the backdrop of centuries-old civilizations steeped in legend and tradition. Here, the people’s reverence for ancestral customs has been passed on through dynasties and kingdoms and preserved from one generation to the next, influencing life today as well as providing an impetus for change and a springboard for the future.

We invite you to join fellow alumni on this exceptional, custom-designed and comprehensive journey encompassing the breadth of China from the Himalayan “Rooftop of the World,” with two nights in the spectacular and seldom-visited city of Lhasa, through the dramatic gorges of the Yangtze River and to the historic neighborhoods of Old Shanghai for an in-depth appreciation of the juxtaposition of ancient culture with modern advancements. Experience the imperial dignity of Mandarin Beijing; the dynastic treasures of historic Xi’an and the Tibetan Buddhist “Sun City” of Lhasa with its architectural masterpiece, the Potala Palace, a symbol of peace and the historic home of the Dalai Lama.

Ideally located Five-Star hotels have been carefully selected for our land accommodations, including Shanghai’s legendary Fairmont Peace Hotel and Lhasa’s renowned Shangri-La Hotel. Our three-night cruise travels the fabled Yangtze River from Chongqing to Yichang through captivating landscapes, historic port cities and resplendent gorges aboard the deluxe M.V. Victoria Jenna, newly relaunched in 2016 after an extensive refurbishment. Cruise the magnificent Three Gorges, enjoy a private boat tour on the spectacular Goddess Stream in the Wu Gorge and visit the extraordinary engineering marvel of the Three Gorges Dam.

Visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites during specially arranged included excursions accompanied by experienced, knowledgeable, English-speaking guides. Enjoy meeting the fascinating people of China and the friendly people of Tibet, who will welcome you to their modern-day earthly paradise—a true Shangri-La that is newly opening up to Western travelers.

This small group program is an extraordinary, once-in-a-lifetime travel opportunity and an excellent value, so we encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are available.

Beijing, China
The former imperial city of the Mongol, Ming and Manchu emperors, Beijing is one of China’s oldest citadels. Rich in historical sites and cultural relics, this dynamic city of more than 12 million people is the cultural and spiritual heart of the country and the ideal place from which to begin tracing back the fascinating narrative of ancient China.

Visit the magnificent Great Wall of China, a UNESCO World Heritage site and symbol of imperial grandeur since 500 B.C. Constructed over the course of 2000 years, this imposing fortification once spanned more than 13000 miles. Walk along this historic border and marvel at sweeping views of China’s northern plains and valleys.

Walk through historic Tiananmen Square, the world’s largest public square and site of the memorial of modern China’s founder, Mao Zedong. Then, pass through the imposing Meridian Gate into the mystical Forbidden City, residence of Ming and Qing dynasty emperors for almost 500 years and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Inside, ascend the stone steps of the magnificent Gate of Supreme Harmony to explore the ceremonial halls, royal apartments, gardens and temples of the Imperial Palace.

The beautifully landscaped Summer Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was the retreat of 19th-century Empress Dowager Cixi. Walk through Cixi’s private apartments filled with jewel-encrusted furniture and see her ornate Marble Boat. Then, enjoy a small boat cruise across Kunming Lake’s tranquil waters.

Tour another extraordinary UNESCO World Heritage site, the Temple of Heaven, a magnificent complex of religious buildings symbolizing the relationship between heaven and Earth.

Xi’an
Modern Xi’an was China’s thriving capital of emperors, courtesans, monks, merchants and soldiers for 11 dynasties; a place where many of the world’s great religions coexisted; and the fabled launching point of the Silk Road, where camel caravans introduced Chinese influence to the world and distributed goods from the Eurasian continent. From Xi’an’s distinctive, triple-eaved Bell and Drum Towers, watchmen once signaled dawn and dusk with a bell and a drum.

Tour the exquisite Yangling Imperial Tomb, where thousands of captivating figurines excavated from the 2100-year-old tomb of Emperor Liu Qi capture the essence of daily life during the Han Dynasty, a high point in Chinese history, when culture and the arts flourished as never before.

Cover photo: Clay was individually applied to the visages of each figure in Emperor Qin Shihuang’s Terra Cotta Army to create distinct facial features.

Photo this page: Walk along the Great Wall of China, dotted with thousands of beacon towers and fortresses, and feel the mystery and allure of the world’s oldest civilization.
Visit the amazing UNESCO World Heritage site of the famous life-size Terra Cotta Warriors, no two alike. In 1974, farmers digging a well unearthed this incredible archaeological discovery—one of the most extraordinary finds of the 20th century—an army of thousands of terra cotta warriors and horses maintaining a silent vigil over the tomb of Emperor Qin Shihuang (259-210 B.C.). This visionary monarch, the first ruler of a unified China, introduced a standardized writing system, reformed the legal code and commenced the building of the Great Wall of China, the greatest public works project of its era. The emperor, as large a figure in death as he was in life, lies buried in a mausoleum that took 36 years to construct and required the efforts of 700,000 laborers. The tomb itself remains unexcavated, guarded by row upon row of chanoteers, infantry, cavalry and horses. The face of each warrior has a distinctive, lifelike expression and bears trappings denoting his rank within the imperial army—general, senior officer, junior officer or common soldier.

Then, walk along Xi’an’s medieval city walls, the best-preserved remaining fortified city walls in China, and explore the lively streets of the Huimin quarter, infused with a rich heritage influenced by merchants who traveled the Silk Road 1300 years ago. Dumplings, called jiaozi in China, are said to have been introduced to Chinese cuisine 1800 years ago. Enjoy a traditional dumpling dinner in one of Xi’an’s most famous restaurants.

Lhasa, Tibet
One of the world’s highest cities at an elevation of 11,800 feet, Lhasa has been a center of Tibetan Buddhism since the religion was introduced here in the seventh century. Today in this captivating city, one can see devout pilgrims, prostrating monks, colorful neighborhood quarters and medieval monasteries.
Five-Star Hotels

The UNESCO World Heritage-designated 18th-century Norbulingka Palace was built by the seventh Dalai Lama on a site of medicinal springs; the lush grounds of this “Jeweled Park” today constitute the largest garden in Tibet.

The elaborate Jokhang Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the most sacred building in Tibet, was constructed in A.D. 647 in the heart of the city’s Old Town by Emperor Songtsen Gampo to honor his two Buddhist wives. Outside the temple complex, stroll along the winding lanes around bustling Barkhor Square, where Tibetan monks chant mantras and spin prayer wheels, fragrant incense wafts through the air and the brilliant colors of silk robes and turquoise jewelry line the alleys. Lhasa’s only female Buddhist monastery, the Canggu Nunnery, is an oasis amid the activity of Barkhor; here, the residents welcome visitors to wander the brightly hued courtyards and listen to their rhythmic recitations.

Chongqing, China

This picturesque mountain city, located at the confluence of the Yangtze and Jialing Rivers, is known for its traditional teahouse culture and spicy Szechuan cuisine. Visit Chongqing’s zoo, one of largest of its kind in China, to see the playful, endangered giant pandas in specially designed garden habitats that emulate their natural environment.

Stay in Shanghai’s historic Fairmont Peace Hotel, whose pyramid-shaped roof is a landmark of the Bund skyline.

These distinctive and centrally located Five-Star hotels—a rarity in China—where you can actually walk to the major sites of Beijing, Xi’an, Lhasa and Shanghai, have been specially selected to enhance your individual exploration of each city.

Regent, Beijing, provides luxury accommodations in an unrivaled location, within walking distance of the Forbidden City and Tiananmen Square.

Fairmont Peace Hotel, Shanghai, is a recently restored, legendary landmark hotel on the Bund and host to the world’s elite for over 80 years.

The Hilton, Xi’an, is ideally located within the ancient city walls, offering contemporary amenities and proximity to the city’s cultural highlights.

Shangri-La, Lhasa, was inspired by the mythical paradise of James Hilton’s novel, Lost Horizon, and offers stunning views of the Himalayas and Potala Palace.

The iconic Tower of the Fragrance of Buddha sits on the slope of Longevity Hill at Beijing’s Summer Palace, a masterpiece of Chinese landscape design.

The 17th-century Potala Palace in Lhasa is the tallest ancient royal complex in the world.

Beijing’s Temple of Heaven represents a crowning achievement of Ming Dynasty architecture.
The deluxe M.V. VICTORIA JENNA provides modern cruise comfort on the Yangtze River. Designed by a U.S. architectural firm and custom-built to conform to Western standards, the ship underwent a complete renovation in 2016. There are only 189 spacious, river-view Suites and Cabins, decorated in contemporary Chinese and Western styles. Each features floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors that open onto a private balcony, from which guests can view the stunning scenery of the Three Gorges and the Yangtze River. Each air-conditioned Suite and Cabin has a private bathroom with bathtub/shower, telephone and satellite television with English and international channels. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served in single, unassigned seatings in the Dynasty Dining Room. Chinese and Western cuisine feature local ingredients. Complimentary house wine and beer are included with lunch and dinner. Coffee, tea and soft drinks are served throughout the cruise.

There are two lounges and three bars, an Observation Deck, library, wireless hotspots for Internet access, gift shop, beauty salon and fitness center. Shipboard entertainment and exercise programs feature traditional Chinese culture. A physician is on board. Laundry service is available.

The M.V. VICTORIA JENNA has a highly trained, English-speaking crew that provides personalized, amiable service.

Yangtze Cruise
Three Gorges/Three Lesser Gorges/Three Gorges Dam

This compelling three-day cruise aboard the M.V. VICTORIA JENNA stops in fascinating, historic ports and showcases the grandeur of one of China’s greatest natural wonders, the Three Gorges.

Visit Shibaozhai, literally “Stone Treasure Fortress,” a rocky promontory on the north bank of the river. Built into its side is the Pearl of Yangtze, a graceful, 12-tiered wooden pagoda rising 240 feet to the top of a towering cliff.

Pass through Kui Gate, the soaring twin peaks that mark the gateway to Qutang, the most dramatic of the Three Gorges. Admire the quiet beauty and sheer white-stone cliffs of stunning Wu Gorge, where the legendary Twelve Peaks look down from misty Wu Mountain, and embark a private boat to cruise down the picturesque Goddess Stream. Cruise through spectacular Xiling, the longest gorge, en route to the Three Gorges Dam locks.

Visit the massive Three Gorges Dam, the largest water conservancy project ever undertaken by man. Considered a key to China’s modernization, it is the world’s largest hydroelectric dam, 1.3 miles wide and 606 feet high.

Shanghai

The exhilarating metropolis of Shanghai was the first of China’s cities to be influenced by the West in the 19th century. Today, its outstanding architectural landmarks along the famous Bund waterfront include the neoclassical Customs House and the China Merchants Bank building. Across the fabled Huangpu River, see the bold high-rises and broad avenues of Pudong, Shanghai’s pulsing financial center. Tour the renowned Shanghai Museum, which houses an important collection of ancient coins from the Silk Road, containing thousands of pieces from the ancient Greeks to the Mongol Empire. The rooftop of the Five-Star FAIRMONT PEACE HOTEL provides the perfect setting for the Farewell Reception, with breathtaking views of the city skyline along the Huangpu.

Chinese civilization originated along the Yellow and Yangtze Rivers during the Neolithic era, and for centuries its culture, literature and philosophy flourished, with each dynasty and kingdom adding to its collective knowledge and heritage. Similarly, Tibet possesses a long and storied history of deep cultural tradition that formed along the Yarlung River Valley in the seventh century. Historic home of the Dalai Lama, Tibet's remote location among the foothills of the Himalayan mountains holds an intriguing allure. The peaks of the Himalayans are sacred to Buddhism, the religion that serves as a powerful bridge between the physical and spiritual relationship of China and Tibet. Its teachings have played an influential role in the politics, economics, technology and art among Tibetans, Chinese and their neighbors through the present day. Yet, for hundreds of years, China and Tibet were insular countries, allowing only glimpses of their cultural richness to the outside world via the Silk Road, which stoked the European’s imagination of exotic lands in the East. A mysterious land, one which Napoleon referred to as “a sleeping giant that would change the world when awoken,” China finally lifted its shroud in 1972. The reopening of China, and Tibet several years later, and the introduction of their ancient traditions to the Western world, vaulted the country into its current progressive nation status, which has been and continues to be a spectacular transformation of the most populous, perhaps most culturally unique place on earth.
