PORTS OF CALL

VENICE, ITALY
Free from cars and steeped in art and architecture, this city of canals is a masterpiece in itself. With travel in the city possible only by water or on foot through the winding, narrow alleyways, Venice is a captivating and singular wonder. Romantic and magical, with graceful gondolas, marvelously-aging plaster walls and flowering window boxes, Venice is a city to lose yourself in.

ZADAR, CROATIA
Three thousand years of history are on display in Zadar, Dalmatia’s centuries-old capital held at various times under Roman, Ostrogoth, and Byzantine rule. Packed on to a peninsula, its pastel-colored Old Town beckons visitors with marble streets framed by Romanesque architecture, medieval churches, palaces and museums, as does its paved seafront set to the unusual sounds of Zadar’s famous Sea Organ.

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO
Beneath the limestone cliffs of Mount Lovcen and at the deepest end of the Bay of Kotor, lies the dramatic and secluded coastal city of Kotor, settled during ancient Roman times. The old town of this walled medieval city, with its narrow streets, Venetian architecture and the 12th-century St. Tryphon Cathedral, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

PALERMO (SICILY), ITALY
At the foot of Monte Pellegrino lies Sicily’s ancient capital and largest and most cosmopolitan city, Palermo—a dramatic architectural feast with a distinct Arab-Norman heritage. Colorful, glorious structures reflect a fascinating fusion of East and West, from an impressive Norman cathedral and grand 9th-century Arab palace to the enchanting Palatine Chapel and neo-classical Teatro Massimo, the largest opera house in Italy.

ROME (CIVITAVECCHIA), ITALY
Once the center of the world’s greatest empire and now the capital of modern Italy, Rome offers remnants of its glorious past wherever you look. From the ancient Roman Forum and Colosseum to the splendor of St. Peter’s Basilica and Michelangelo’s breathtaking frescoes in the Sistine Chapel, it’s a legendary city rich in antiquity and culture.

FLORENCE/PISA/TUSCANY (LIVORNO), ITALY
The architectural and artistic masterpieces of the Renaissance—Brunelleschi’s Duomo, the Baptistery, Michelangelo’s David, the Ponte Vecchio and the Uffizi Gallery—await you in Florence, a masterpiece in itself. Pisa’s superb Field of Miracles and iconic Leaning Tower also beckon, as does the captivating Tuscan countryside, renowned for its gently rolling hills, medieval hilltop villages and superb wine.

MONTE CARLO, MONACO
Nestled between the South of France and Italy, sparkling Monte Carlo features the famous Grand Corniche and the 12th-century Grimaldi Palace. With an area of less than one square mile, this city-state packs plenty of excitement and attractions into its small space, including the glamorous Monte Carlo Casino and the Circuit de Monaco, site of the famed Grand Prix.

MARSEILLE/PROVENCE, FRANCE
Entrancing Provence has inspired and enchanted for centuries. From the historic port city of Marseille to the picturesque countryside dotted with medieval towns and quaint villages perched on rocky hilltops, Provençal France fulfills even the grandest expectations.

BARCELONA, SPAIN
Harbored on the Mediterranean, Barcelona claims a world of its own, where posh sophistication lives harmoniously with historic tradition and striking architecture mingles with medieval structures. The city’s spirited energy gave inspiration to the artistic masterminds of Gaudí and Picasso. The ever-evolving Sagrada Familia, bustling open-air markets and grid-like streets of Eixample give distinction to every inch of the city, while the mysterious passages of Barrio Gotic are home to the most comprehensive medieval quarter in Europe.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions; available for purchase approximately 4 months prior to departure.
