Do not hesitate to contact us with any questions you may have. We look forward to welcoming you in Verona!
Dear Spartan Alumni and Friends,

Fall in love with "fairVerona," the pink-hued city that set the stage for Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet! Spend seven nights at a first-class hotel in the historic center, your base for exploration throughout the alluring Veneto. Travel is a string of gems across this northeastern Italian region, including Venice, Verona, Padua and Bassano del Grappa, plus visit the Val di Conegliano and the tranquil Friar country.

You'll delight in absorbing history and unforgettable cultural treasures, from Roman ruins and Renaissance frescoes to classical Palladian buildings and an enchanting island.

Other unique experiences—on an exclusive operatic event, grapes and wine tastings and a Lake Garda cruise—round out your trip!

Realists know that your seasoned Travel Director has all the organizational details covered so that you can focus on enjoying your journey. And with local lecturers and expert guides on hand to offer insights and context, you'll come away with a deeper appreciation of the Veneto's rich history. You'll also be sharing experiences with other curious and educated travelers, creating a special camaraderie that takes your trip deeper appreciation of the Veneto's rich history. You'll also be sharing experiences with other curious and educated travelers, creating a special camaraderie that takes your trip.
