Dear MSU Alumni and Friends,

Experience the breathtaking beauty of the Dordogne and Garonne Rivers, which together have shaped the scenery and culture of the Bordeaux region of France.

In addition to the world-class wines made possible by Bordeaux’s perfect combination of climate and soil, the region has a rich tapestry of culture and tradition demonstrated in its Gothic churches, opulent châteaus, and medieval villages.

Embark on an all-inclusive, credit-card free luxury river cruise aboard the state-of-the-art Scenic Diamond. With a meticulously planned itinerary, unforgettable shore excursions, the unique and unrivaled Scenic Culinaire French cooking program, and all onboard food and beverages—including beer, wine, and premium spirits—included, there is no better way to experience the Bordeaux region and immerse yourself in the history and culture that lie within.

Go Green!

TRAVEL INSURANCE

We strongly suggest purchasing travel insurance. Travel insurance information will be sent to you by Michigan State University with your confirmation letter.

ASSOCIATION DISCLAIMER

The Association is not the Tour Operator.

The Association is not responsible for changes of flight times, fare changes, disbursement of airline, hotel or car rental reservations, delays, losses, injuries, inconveniences, cessation of operations, airline or tour operator bankruptcies, acts of God, or any other event beyond our control.

The Association acts only as agent for the participants with respect to travel services, and it shall not be responsible for changes of flight times, fare changes, disbursement of airline, hotel or other reservations, injury, damage, loss of baggage, accidents or for the acts or defaults of any person or entity engaged in conveying participants or in carrying on other arrangements of the tour. Further, the Association shall not be responsible for weather, labor strife, government actions, mechanical breakdowns, war-like acts, terrorist activities or other causes reasonably beyond the respective control of GN and the sponsoring association. GN reserves the right to terminate the participation of any participant whose conduct or behavior constitutes a danger to themselves or incompatible with others on the trip. Participants requiring special arrangements (such as requiring a wheelchair) must be accompanied by someone who agrees to provide the required assistance. If, notwithstanding the above, either or both GN or the sponsoring association is held liable, the amount of such liability shall not exceed the amount of payments made to GN by you.

The Association is not responsible for alterations in the itinerary as deemed necessary for carrying out the tour, and the Association shall not be responsible for air or land arrangements made independently by travelers, including non-refundable conditions, restricted flight or frequent flyer tickets.

People must also present a passport with at least six months validity beyond their return date when boarding. Improper documentation, inadequate proof of identity, inadequate proof of age for children under 2, or any other reason may result in denial of boarding privileges. The air carrier and cruise line reserve the right to decline, accept or retain any person on the flight or cruise at any time during their sole discretion. If you are denied boarding privileges, you forfeit all monies paid and will be assessed any non-refundable costs.

Visas: A visa may be required. If you are an international passport holder for countries other than the United States or Canada, please be sure to check with your local consulate for any applicable visa requirements for each port of call on the itinerary. Travel requirements may differ and therefore it is the sole responsibility of each person to obtain the appropriate valid travel and health documents. Anyone who does not have valid documentation will not be boarded and will forfeit all monies. Minors traveling without one or both parents are required to present an original notarized letter of permission from the absent parent(s).

Cruises are operated in the territorial waters of the United States. If you are denied boarding privileges, you forfeit all monies paid and will be assessed any non-refundable costs.

Travelers less than 18 years of age on the departure date must be accompanied by and share a cabin with an adult. Children less than 12 years of age on the departure date are not accepted.

Health: Any physical or mental condition requiring special medical attention or equipment must be disclosed in writing to GN at the time the participant makes a reservation. GN may reject the reservation of any person who, in the opinion of GN is unfit for travel or might be a danger to themselves or incompatible with others on the trip. Participants requiring special assistance, including individuals who permanently or periodically use a wheelchair, must be accompanied by someone who agrees to provide the required assistance. If, notwithstanding the above, either or both GN or the sponsoring association is held liable, the amount of such liability shall not exceed the amount of payments made to GN by you.

There are no exceptions of any kind (including medical exceptions) to these Policies. No refunds will be made for any portion of the arrangements we have made for you that are not actually utilized by you. There is no variance from these policies for the services we arrange as described in this brochure.
