Antequera. Visit two Neolithic dolmens just outside the city. These megalithic monuments are significant examples of European prehistoric architecture. Return to the city for a walking tour. Visit the Alcazaba, the 14th-century fortress that watches over the city. Visit the Real Colegiata de Santa María la Mayor; a 16th-century church built with stones from a nearby Roman town. Explore the old town, where the city’s history is told through its architecture. See elements of its Roman, Moorish, Gothic, Renaissance and baroque eras.

Granada. Explore the Alhambra, Granada’s famous Moorish fortress. This spectacular 13th-century complex looks over the city. It features excellent examples of Moorish architecture, including courtyards, fountains and arch-lined walkways. Enjoy lunch at the beautiful Parador de Granada, which is in the Alhambra, before descending to the city for free time to explore.

Sevilla. In Sevilla, the cultural heart of Spain, visit the Plaza de España. See the cathedral, the world’s largest Gothic building, and the Alcázar. Walk through the Barrio de Santa Cruz, where bougainvillea spill over the balconies and the narrow lanes lead to fountains, traditional craft shops and more. Enjoy time to explore on your own.

Ronda. Sitting on the edge of El Tajo gorge, Ronda’s dramatic location makes it one of Spain’s most beautiful towns. Visit the Iglesia de Santa María la Mayor; Plaza de Toros, the famous bullfighting ring; and Casa de San Juan Bosco for an unforgettable view over El Tajo.

Wine Tasting. Visit an organic winery for a tasting and lunch.

Córdoba. Visit La Mezquita, a grand example of Moorish architecture. Its 850 columns rise like trees of marble, granite, jasper and onyx to its iconic red-and-white striped arches. Continue with a tour of the old town and free time.

Málaga. Board shuttles to the city of Málaga for time to explore on your own. Spend the day visiting the Picasso Museum, the Spanish outpost of Paris’ Centre Pompidou or the Bullfighting Museum before returning by shuttle to Antequera.

Enrichment

The Moors and Al-Andalus. For eight centuries, the Moors dominated most of the Iberian Peninsula. Andalucía, the name of Spain’s famous southern region, comes from its old Arabic name, Al-Andalus. Discover the impact the Moors had on Spanish language and culture.

Bullfighting Traditions. Learn about bullfighting and discover Ronda’s contribution to this pastime.

Spain Today. Learn how current events and issues are shaping the country.

Flamenco. Admire the precise, graceful dancing and the passionate guitar music and singing of this world-famous art form.

Elective Experience

We have designed an optional activity to allow you to craft your individual trip.

Torcal and Olive Oil. Visit a family-owned olive mill in the Montes de Málaga Natural Park. Learn about the process of making olive oil and savor a delicious brunch featuring the mill’s olive oil. Then drive through interesting limestone landscape of El Torcal Nature Reserve.
