ENRICHMENT:

Day 1 | Amsterdam, Netherlands
Visit the Rijksmuseum to view fabulous art and artifacts of the Dutch Golden Age, including works by Dutch and Flemish masters, most notably Rembrandt and Vermeer. View fine art in the Netherlands' most famous art museum and see masterpieces such as the Night Watch. Continue on to the Anne Frank House, a museum dedicated to the famous diarist, and the reconstructed rooms in a house above a secret annex where she and her family hid during World War II. Enjoy a late afternoon dinner on board your ship.

Day 2 | Amsterdam, Netherlands
Join a guided tour of the city, exploring symbols of medieval Amsterdam such as the 17th-century Church of Our Lady, the 16th-century town hall and the Amsterdam Museum. In the afternoon, enjoy a bicycle ride, stroll the Oudeschans, or visit the Anne Frank House.

Day 3 | Amsterdam to Kampen, Netherlands
Discover the unique character of waterways that connect historic cities and small villages. In the afternoon, enjoy a scenic bike ride through the scenic wetland north of the city that extends to the mouth of the Lauwerszee. Pedal past fields of blossoming daffodils and other gorgeous blooms. Return to the ship as it cruises to Kampen.

Day 4 | Kampen to the Rhine
Enjoy lunch on your own in Bruges, then rejoin the ship for a tour of the city. Join the half-day Elective Activity or the fully-guided Bruges and Belgian Chocolate. See the historic half-timbered houses on Amsterdam's canals and admire the city's gabled houses on the arm of the canal.

Day 5 | The Hague and the Mauritshuis
Visit the Mauritshuis, celebrating its 250th anniversary, and enjoy a guided tour with special access. The Mauritshuis is a museum of world-renowned Dutch paintings, including works by Johannes Vermeer and Jan Steen.
