"This is an absolute "must do" trip if you like dogs and have any desire to try dog sledding. The tour far exceeded our expectations...we could not have been more pleased with all the activities, the food, the lodging, everything!!"

Nature's Kennel, Michigan's premier dog sledding destination is located in the Eastern Upper Peninsula of Michigan and is home to 150 magnificent Alaskan Huskies. The tour is led by Tasha Stielstra '98, MSU College of Education. Both she and her husband Ed are Spartans and are well-accomplished mushers. This unique winter adventure offers you the opportunity to drive your own dog team or to take a ride with the sled dogs of Nature's Kennel. Also included is a presentation about kennel and how the Stielstra's went from MSU graduates to business owners. You'll have the opportunity to enjoy a bit of Upper Peninsula winter splendor with a trip to Tahquamenon Falls State Park where you will be led on a private snowshoe hike. You will also learn about the Eben Ice Caves and Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore from MSU alum Steve Tchozeski '77 of Great Lakes Geoscience.

Trip Itinerary:

Sunday, January 26th

6:00 pm Welcome reception at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn

Appetizers and wine will be served around the lobby fireplace followed by dinner in the private dining area.

6:30 pm Dinner at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn

Following dinner, you will get an introduction to Nature's Kennel Sled Dog Adventures and Racing Team with Tasha Stielstra. She will give a short presentation about Nature's Kennel Sled Dogs and her and Ed's participation in sled dog races around the world.

Monday, January 27th

7:30 am Breakfast at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn

9:00 am Dog Sledding at Nature's Kennel

Try your hand at mushing your own team or take a ride in the dog sled. The dog sledding trip is designed for beginners. You will meet the guides and learn the instructions necessary to mush your own five-dog team on the scenic ten mile trail. Or, if you prefer, you can ride in the sled with the guide. Please let Tasha know your preference for participating as a rider or driver when you make your reservation.

1:00 pm Lunch at Tahquamenon Falls Brewery, Tahquamenon Falls State Park

There will be a limited menu to choose from. Beer will also be available at an additional cost.

2:00 pm Snowshoe Hike with Tahquamenon Falls State Park

Enjoy a scenic snowshoe hike at Tahquamenon Falls State Park (snowshoes and instruction provided). MSU alum Theresa Neal will talk about the park's history and winter in the Upper Peninsula. There will also be time to explore the Upper Falls of Tahquamenon Falls on your own or as part of a guided hike.

6:00 pm Dinner at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn

Enjoy dinner and relax in front of the giant fireplace after a great day of winter activities. Following dinner, there will be a brief introduction to the unique geologic features of the Eastern Upper Peninsula in preparation for touring the Munising area on Friday.

Tuesday, January 28th

8:00 am Breakfast at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn.

9:00 am departure to Munising

Steve Tchozeski of Great Lakes Geoscience will accompany this portion of the tour while you explore the beautiful frozen waterfalls and sandstone outcroppings of the Munising area. Weather permitting, spend the day exploring the local ice formations, Twin Falls, and Munising Falls. Lunch will be at the Driftwood Deli in Munising before heading out on a short afternoon hike. Hikes will be selected that are scenic, safe, and within the capabilities of the group.

Note: Hiking this day includes a considerable amount of mildly strenuous walking on difficult and slippery terrain but does not require special climbing equipment or snowshoes, although ice cleats are recommended for walking on ice.

6:00 pm Dinner at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn

Enjoy a fantastic dinner and then relax in front of the fireplace after another great day of winter activities.

Wednesday, January 29th

8 am-11 am Breakfast at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn

Departure at your leisure.

Accommodations: Enjoy three nights of lodging at Chamberlin's Ole Forest Inn in Curtis. Chamberlin's is nestled high on a bluff overlooking Big Manistique Lake in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. This incredible lakeside country inn offers charming accommodations and casual fine dining. Rich in history, this gracious 7500 square ft., 19th century-style lakeside dwelling was built by a railroad company to serve as a passenger hotel near the Curtis train station. More than one hundred years later the inn continues to embrace travelers with warmth, comfortable lodging and stunning views.

Included meals: There will be a private welcome dinner and program at Chamberlin's on Sunday night, dinner on Monday and Tuesday evenings and full breakfasts on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Monday lunch will be at the Tahquamenon Falls Brewery and Tuesday lunch will be at Driftwood Deli in Munising. If you have special dietary needs, please let them know when making your reservation. All restaurants are spacious enough to provide adequate space for a group and adequate distancing for each couple/individual if necessary.

Getting there: Air transportation is available to Marquette, MI (Sawyer International Airport) or Sault Ste. Marie (Chippewa County Airport). Both airports have rental cars available.

Transportation during the tour: Transportation is available to and from all locations (Chamberlin's, Nature's Kennel, Tahquamenon Falls, and Munising). If you prefer to drive your own vehicle, maps will be provided and you can easily follow the caravan.

Cost: $1,600 per person. Gratuities included.

Payment: A 50% deposit is required at the time of reservation. The balance of the trip is due on January 26th when you come for your adventure. Payment may be made via all major credit cards or personal check.

Cancellation policy: In the unlikely event the trip is canceled due to weather conditions, a full refund will be issued. If participants request a cancellation, the deposit will be refunded if request is made more than three weeks before the start of the trip.

Reservations: To make your reservation, contact Tasha Stielstra, Nature's Kennel 906-748-0513 or info@naureskennel.com. Please note this trip is limited to 10 participants. The trip must have a minimum of 6 participants to operate. If the minimum is not met by December 26th, deposits will be refunded.

Gear: Bring warm gear for the dog sledding trip as there is a constant breeze when the sled is moving. Insulated snow pants, a warm parka/jacket, winter boots, mittens and lightweight gloves (gloves are nice when hooking up the dogs), are all suggested. If riding in the sled, blankets will be provided. Warm winter boots are available for loan if needed at no charge. The same gear can be worn for snowshoeing and hiking to the caves and ice cleats will be provided.
