Day Fourteen

Highlights of Prades, Spain

Experience the beauty of the Pyrenees Mountains, one of Europe’s most beautiful mountain ranges. You can take a leisurely cycle along the Pyrenees or explore the region’s many hiking trails. During this day, you can also visit the world-famous Carthusian Monastery of Prades, known for its stunning architecture and religious art.

Day Fifteen

Highlights of Athens

Explore the ancient ruins and historical sites of Athens, known for its rich cultural heritage and stunning architecture. You can visit the world-famous Acropolis, including the Parthenon, and the neighboring Ancient Agora. During this day, you can also explore the city’s many museums and galleries, including the National Archaeological Museum and the Museum of the History of Science and Technology.

Day Sixteen

Highlights of Venice

Discover the beauty of Venice, known for its stunning architecture and rich cultural heritage. You can visit the world-famous Venice Railway Station, the St. Mark’s Basilica, and the Doge’s Palace. During this day, you can also explore the city’s many museums and galleries, including the Venice Biennale and the Museum of the History of Science and Technology.
The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the best elements of any operating activity. Your personal travel story begins with your departure on a blank sheet of paper. In the process of your travels, you receive clues about your past and knowledge you gain of the world.

This rather personal reflection has both aesthetic and intellectual dimensions. It is a reflection on the nature of travel that is both profound and evocative. It is a reflection on the nature of travel that is both profound and evocative.
