Day 2 | Athens | Acropolis | Day Tour. See the Acropolis Museum, Temple of Athena Nike, Parthenon, Erechtheum, and other landmarks on a guided tour. Stand in the glorious Acropolis overlooking Athens Peloponnese pottery and Agia Sofia, a Byzantine church atop a cliff. Your afternoon is free and your hotel is available for your use.

Day 3 | Athens | Mycenae | Spend the remainder of the day exploring Athens on your own. In the afternoon, depart Athens and journey toward Gytheio, a seaside town that served as a crucial port for the ancient Greeks. Arrive in time to enjoy dinner and a cocktail. As a special welcome to Gytheio, enjoy a cocktail and traditional Greek appetizers.

Day 4 | Gytheio | Mystras | After breakfast, check out of the hotel. Depart Gytheio and spend the rest of the day discovering Mystras and Greek Wines. Get acquainted with dramatic ancient sites on the Peloponnese and a UNESCO World Heritage site. On your own, explore the hill town of Mystras, one of the marvels of Greece, with its 13th-century city walls and towering towers. The site, perched high on the cliffs, is as breathtaking as it is historic. Today, Mystras is a living city with residents who maintain centuries-old traditions. The Palamidi Castle offers a breathtaking view of the Palamidi Tower and the Mystras plains and the town of Sparta. Enjoy a wine-tasting and lunch. (D)

Day 5 | Gytheio | Areopoli | Gytheio | Free Time: Stroll in the lovely old town, delight in its warm atmosphere and lovely beaches and marina, and unwind on nearby beaches like Mavrovouni and Agios Nikolaos. Spend the remainder of the day as you please. This evening, enjoy a farewell dinner at the Las Hotel & Spa. (B, D)

Day 6 | Corinth | Aegina | Day 6 | This morning, check out of the hotel and depart for Corinth, where you’ll board your ship and embark on your eight-night sail to Mykonos. As you sail, listen to a talk about the stops you’ll visit on your journey.

Day 7 | Mykonos | Santorini | On your own, explore the charming capital of Mykonos, a vibrant island noted for its beaches, nightlife, and vibrant culture. Experience its cosmopolitan vibe and enjoy time on Mykonos beaches like Ornos and Elia. In the evening, admire Windmills. (Free Time: Allow a minimum of $20 for lunch)

Day 8 | Santorini | Naxos | Day 8 | Free Time: This morning, you’ll arrive in Santorini, an island known for its stunning white houses and blue-domed churches perched on volcanic cliffs. A highlight is the town of Oia, perched on the caldera rim. Your afternoon is free and you’ll be dropped off at your hotel.

Day 9 | Naxos | Paros | This morning, check out of the hotel and depart for Paros. Explore this beautiful island with a short walk in Gytheio to learn more about traditional Greek life so captivating. As you stroll, you’ll see the Fortified medieval town of Monemvasia. Enter this picturesque, hidden gem today through the castle gate, and meander on the pathways that run along the hillside and through the castle in Gytheio. To avoid enemy attacks, Monemvasia stands on a narrow, rocky island where you would least suspect that a fortified medieval town lies on it. To avoid enemy attacks, Monemvasia would remain a secret stronghold, a place to keep your treasure (gold, precious goods, and slaves) and your enemies. Perhaps the island would never be discovered by invaders. But Monemvasia would be discovered, in 1249, by the Greek Emperor Michael VIII Palaeologus, who named it for his queen, Maria, the wife of the last Byzantine emperor. Michael VIII wanted to build a fortress to protect the island and its wealth. Monemvasia was built almost entirely of stone, and the town was surrounded by a crenellated wall. To enter the town, you must pass through a gate and the town is almost entirely built of stone. The walls of the town are made of limestone. Most of the city is surrounded by a crenellated wall that runs along the top of the hill. The wall is made of stone and, in places, is 30 feet high.

Day 10 | Paros | Athens | Day 10 | Free Time: This morning, you’ll sail to Athens, where you’ll arrive today! Maybe you’ll set up a chair in the sand and unwind on nearby beaches like Mavrovouni or Agios Nikolaos. In the afternoon, transfer to Athens and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure. As you explore this city of Alexander the Great and Athens Parthenon, you’ll see the Panathenaic Stadium, built in 1893, separates the Peloponnese from the mainland. Get an up-close glimpse during your ship-to-shore transportation. Enjoy a visit to the Acropolis Museum, designed by world-renowned architect Renzo Piano, to explore the history and architecture of the Acropolis. Your hotel is available for your use.

Day 11 | Athens | Nafplio | Day 11 | Free Time: This morning, you’ll take a break for a delicious lunch. (D) Enjoy coastal life in charming, seaside villages, for fabulous views of the crystal-clear Mediterranean waters. As a special send-off, enjoy a cocktail and traditional Greek appetizers.
