Dubai, United Arab Emirates

In the 1960s, the UAE began as a fishing village and later prospered due to its pearl diving industry and trading. Examine this rich history at the Al Shindagha Museum.

Today, discover modern Dubai, a cosmopolitan, international center of commerce and finance that protected coastal trade routes. Join your group for lunch at a spa.

Visit this traditional Dubai. Head into the Arabian Desert for a guided drive within this protected desert habitat.

Check in to the Le Royal Méridien Abu Dhabi.

On a guided tour through the galleries, view sculptures, paintings and decorative artifacts that appears to float over the complex and creates an enchanting, dappled light below. That protected coastal trade routes.

Make your own plans for lunch on your own at the World Trade Center East for their beauty and speed.

Walk through the Al Fahidi neighborhood, once the heart of Dubai’s traditional souk and the site of the Al Fahidi Fort, now a museum dedicated to the UAE’s rich cultural heritage. Tour the Grand Bazaar and visit the Dubai Museum, located in the historical Al Fahidi Fort. Later, take a walking tour of the Barajeel neighborhood, a residential community that has been transformed into a cultural platform and community center. This evening, gather for a Welcome Reception and Dinner with AHI’s Travel Directors. Enjoy a delicious meal of classic Emirati dishes, including fresh seafood, grilled meats, and vegetables.

Day 3 | United Arab Emirates

Today, discover modern Dubai, a cosmopolitan, dynamic, and diverse city with influences from around the world. In the morning, visit the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, one of the world’s largest mosques. Marvel at the mosque’s breathtaking design, which is inspired by traditional Islamic architecture. After your visit, enjoy lunch at the World Trade Center Souk, followed by a visit to the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque Center, a unique cultural center that showcases the rich history and values of the UAE. Afterward, explore the Dubai Mall, famous for its retail shops and restaurants, as well as the Dubai Aquarium and Underwater Zoo. In the afternoon, board a traditional dhow for a leisurely cruise along the Dubai Creek, admiring the traditional abra crossings and the stunning skyline of modern Dubai. In the evening, transfer to the Canopy by Hilton Dubai Al Seef, a riverside hotel that offers a blend of traditional and modern design.
