Stirling. Stirling lies in the heart of a very historic area of Scotland. Visit the site of the Battle of Bannockburn, and listen to the story of the Scots' triumph in this 14th-century battle. Explore grand Stirling Castle, an important stronghold and royal residence, which was the early childhood home of Mary, Queen of Scots. See the Great Hall and royal chambers.

Loch Lomond and The Trossachs. Take in the marvelous scenery of this vast national park known for its pristine lochs and munros, or mountains. Begin with a cruise on Loch Lomond and later stop in the pretty village of Luss filled with slate and sandstone cottages originally built for workers at the nearby slate quarries. After lunch along Loch Lomond's shore, enjoy a scenic drive through Aberfoyle and Queen Elizabeth Forest Park in the Trossachs.

St Andrews. See the towering National Wallace Monument before continuing to St Andrews. Walk with your guide amid the seaside ruins of the town's medieval castle, and envision the size and grandeur of its 12th-century cathedral from the remnants that still stand. Later, see the celebrated St Andrews Old Course, where golf has been played for more than 600 years.

Edinburgh and the Tattoo. On the way to Edinburgh, see the Forth Bridge, the oldest multispan cantilever bridge. Once in the dynamic capital, admire the medieval Old Town and the Georgian New Town. Stroll along the atmospheric Royal Mile and visit Edinburgh Castle high atop Castle Rock. Later, delight in the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo, an unforgettable annual spectacle performed before the floodlit castle that features regimental pipes and drums, Highland dancers and fireworks. (Active)
