ITINERARY

DAY 1 - TRAVEL TO ZAGREB

Today, we embark on our overnight flight to Zagreb.

Meals In-flight

DAY 2 - ZAGREB - LAND TOUR START DATE

Welcome to Zagreb. The capital city of Croatia has it all: culture, arts, music, architecture and good eats. Explore the city on your own, relax, or join us on an optional walking tour with a local historian. Visit the medieval Upper Town, Zagreb's oldest district. It sits, perched on top of two hills, Kaptol, the old town's clerical center. Clustered around the city's elegant neo-Gothic cathedrals and Gradec, and lined with pastel-colored baroque palaces, once home to the city's nobility, this town is a sight like no other. Check out Gornji Grad and the Church of St. Mark's, the Art Pavilion and the Meštrović Gallery or the Croatian National Theater. Tonight join the welcome cocktail and cevapčići dinner with our travel companions.

DAY 3 - ZAGREB - PLITVICE LAKES NATIONAL PARK - SPLIT

Depart Zagreb early in the morning for a drive south to Plitvice Lakes National Park, one of Europe's great natural wonders. This is truly one of the most amazing primeval forests, featuring 16 terraced lakes, laced together by waterfalls and miles of wooden walkways and bridges. Take advantage of the park's free boat and train rides to get the most out of your visit and enjoy a picnic lunch at one of the park's al fresco dining areas. Our journey continues to the historic port city of Split, Croatia's second-largest city. This bustling city offers a perfect balance between traditional and modern lifestyles. The jewel in the center of town is the breath-taking Diocletian's Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most impressive Roman monuments in the world. Enjoy a typical Dalmatian dinner, then stroll along the lively harbor by the sparkling Adriatic Sea.

Meals Breakfast, lunch, dinner

DAY 4 - SPLIT

On our morning tour of Split with a local historian and 'Game of Thrones' expert, we discover exciting filming locations. The palace was built in the early 4th century as a retirement estate for the Diocletian, who spared no expense, importing marble from Italy and Greece, and columns and sphinxes from Egypt. Diocletian's Palace was used as the setting for several scenes in the city of Meereen. We follow in Daenerys' footsteps as we explore this 1,700-year-old structure, visiting the throne room and the dungeons where she kept her dragons. Today the palace is a living monument, with residences and colorful shops that started to occupy the ruins of the palace around the 7th century. This afternoon, continue your own exploration of Split, sample fresh local seafood, or relax on the beach.

Meals Breakfast

DAY 5 - SPLIT

Spend the day as you wish, or join us on an optional all-day aquatic adventure exploring the Blue & Green Caves, Stiniva Cove, and the popular islands of Biševo, Vis, and Hvar with its lavender fields, lofty peaks, and yacht-filled marinas. Our excursion includes time for swimming, snorkeling, and exploration of the islands.

Optional activity: Aquatic Adventure from Split

DAY 6 - SPLIT - KLIS FORTRESS - STON - TRSTENO ARBORETUM - DUBROVNIK

This morning we visit Klis Fortress, a small medieval stronghold that provided the backdrop for the City of Meereen. It dates back to the 7th century and has been the seat of many Croatian rulers. We continue our drive along the dramatic coastline, crossing Bosnia Herzegovina, before arriving at Ston, and Mali Ston, both salt-producing towns. The city's defensive walls are world-famous and second largest in the world after the Great Wall of China. After lunch on your own and time to explore the town, our journey continues to Trsteno Arboretum, the oldest arboretum in this part of the world. It was built in the late 15th century to house plants and seeds brought back from foreign countries by the Gozze family. The aqueduct used for irrigation purposes is still in use today and the stunning belvedere pavilion overlooking the Dalmatian Coast and the Adriatic Sea were the gardens of the Red Keep. We arrive in Dubrovnik, 'Pearl of the Adriatic' and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Game of Thrones lovers have arrived in King's Landing, the 'jack pot' of filming locations.

Visit Fort Lovrijenac, known as the "Red Keep," the Stairs to the Great Sept of Baelor, Minčeta Tower as House of the Undying, St. Dominika Street, location of many market scenes and famous for Cersei's Walk of Shame. Stop at Pile Bay, aka Blackwater Bay, with amazing views of both Bokar and Lovrijenac Fort. Dubrovnik is not only a feast for Game of Thrones fans, but will enchant all visitors with its marble streets, imposing stone walls rising from steep cliffs, churches, monuments and picturesque coves and beaches. THE GATES OF KING'S LANDING

INSIDE THE WORLD OF GAME OF THRONES

Game of Thrones set designers and producers have their work cut out for them. Bringing George RR. Martin's fantastical landscapes and architecture to life is no small feat. The scenery and ancient architecture throughout Croatia served as an unbelievable source of inspiration for the filming crew.

Croatia's culture, style, and atmosphere seamlessly melt into the fantasy, excitement, and storytelling the Game of Thrones franchise is known for. Croatia's culture is waiting to be experienced and, lucky for us, many Game of Thrones filming locations are ready to be explored! Join us on this trip to see these historical sights first hand and let your imagination run wild as we explore the Roman, Medieval and Renaissance locations that inspired the Game of Thrones cast and crew.

KLIS FORTRESS

This medieval fortress is perched on an isolated rocky ridge and has some of the most gorgeous views overlooking the city of Split, the Adriatic Sea and the surrounding areas. With over 2,000 years of history, this fortress was originally founded by the Illyrians in the 2nd century BC and was used as a stronghold before being taken by the Romans. After the fall of the Roman Empire, the fortress became a seat for several Croatian Kings. It became home to Khaleesi when she overtook Meereen, the largest of the 3 great slaver cities, in Season 3 of Game of Thrones. Daenerys vowed to 'answer justice with injustice' by nailing the city's former rulers to crosses for hundreds to see right outside of her new fortress, while all of the city's former slaves chanted 'Mhysa, mhysa,' (mother, mother) to vow their support to their new queen.

DIOCLETIAN PALACE SPLIT

The only remains of the Diocletian era in the city of Split today are the Diocletian Palace, the remains of walls and gates. While the rest of the city is made up of white stone buildings from different time periods, this ancient palace was constructed from local limestone and white marble. Built by the Emperor Diocletian who voluntarily gave up his throne on the Roman Empire, the palace and fortress ruins now serve as the main attraction of the city of Split, housing numerous cafes, shops, restaurants and apartments. You may recognize the interior of the palace from multiple seasons of Game of Thrones - it is home to Daenerys's throne room, it's where the dragons are kept and where they were trained, and it's where the memorable scene was filmed of the slaves of Meereen debating if they should join Daenerys's slave revolt, or if they should remain loyal to their masters.

TRSTENO ARBORETUM

Up the coast, just 18 km Northwest of Dubrovnik, the Trsteno Arboretum is the oldest renaissance garden in Croatia, dating back to at least 1492 although its exact date of establishment is not known. The grounds of the garden are truly unique, partly in thanks to the Gučetić-Gozze family, the Arboretum's previous residents who requested ship captains bring back different plants and seeds from their travels to all types of exotic destinations. You can find plants from all over the world in the garden, including date-palms, Japanese banana trees, evergreen magnolia, varieties of cacti and other striking plants. Despite suffering extensive damage over the years, the Arboretum is mostly restored and was featured as a major filming location as the Gardens of King's Landing in Game of Thrones. You may even recognize some of the paths characters like Olena Tyrell, Margaery Tyrell, Varys and Lord Peter Baelish strolled along weaving plots and exchanging secrets.

FORT LOVRIJENAC

Built on sheer rock over 120 feet high and overlooking the Adriatic Sea, Fort Lovrijenac was of prime importance for the defense for the western part of Dubrovnik against attack from both land and sea while also functioning as a major hub for entertainment as a theater. This incredible sight doubles as The Red Keep in Game of Thrones. The fortress serves of similar importance in housing and protecting the Royal Lannister family. This site was used as the filming location for many scenes from the series, including King Joffrey's infamous Name Day ceremony.

THE GATES OF KING'S LANDING

INSIDE THE WORLD OF GAME OF THRONES

DUBROVNIK DOCKS

This was where Sansa stood as she made a game out of imagining where each ship was sailing off to when she was told by Littlefinger there may be a chance for her to escape King's Landing. However, when you visit you will not find yourself so eager to leave. The Dubrovnik Docks not only indulge you in rich views of the Adriatic Sea, but they also provide you with an opportunity to see the magnificence of Fort Lovrijenac from below.

ST. DOMINICA STREET STEPS

Within the old, medieval city walls of Dubrovnik, St. Dominika Street is a long narrow pathway that allows you to appreciate and immerse yourself in all of the unique architecture of this city from within. Every Game of Thrones fan remembers Cersei's iconic walk of atonement in Season 5: the Septa repeats "Shame, shame, shame," as she walks Cersei naked down the steps and through a narrow, cobble street while townspeople throw things at her, yelling various profanities. However, be assured you will have a much more pleasant experience exploring this old city, taking in all of the fascinating and rich history found within its fortress walls.

DUBROVNIK CITY GATES

The white stone beauty of the Dubrovnik City Walls gave the city its nickname as the Pearl of the Adriatic. The defensive walls run uninterrupted for 6,365 feet encircling the city and were built systematically to prevent the danger of foreign attacks. Today there are two gates used to enter the Old Town, though there used to be four: the Pile Gate (built in 1537) serves as the natural starting point to any visit in Dubrovnik, while the Ploče Gate encloses the city on the eastern side. Both gates have both an inner and outer gate, and though they now remain open, drawbridges used to be closed on a nightly basis to keep foreigners out of the city. These gates doubled as the gates of King's Landing in Game of Thrones, and were used to keep the royal capital's people safe.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

BEFORE YOU GO

HOW DO I BOOK?

Booking your trip is easy! To make your reservation, head to www.aesu.com and click the "CHECK AVAILABILITY" button on any trip page to book your trip online, or you can call us at 1-800-638-7640 if you have any questions.

DO I NEED A PASSPORT? A VISA?

Travel to EUROPE: If you are an American or Canadian citizen, you only need a Passport. The easiest way to get a passport is through your local post office, County Court House, or Passport Agency. Check the United States State Department's website for specific regulations regarding acquiring a passport. (<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports.html>). You may need a Visa for our tours if you are not an American or Canadian citizen. If you are a citizen of another country, you must contact the appropriate consulates for each nation on the itinerary, and you must obtain these visas on your own.

Travel BEYOND Europe: Check on Visa requirements (incl. American or Canadian citizens) with the respective consulate or embassy. Some countries may charge for a tourist visa on entry or a departure tax on leaving the country.

HOW MUCH MONEY WILL I NEED?

We recommend $50-$80 per day, depending on your spending habits. That money covers items of a personal nature, laundry, beverages and meals not included on tour, and expenses for free-time activities (metro tickets, taxis, entrance fees). This amount does not include money for souvenir/gift shopping. We strongly recommend bringing a credit card (Visa, American Express, and Mastercard are the most widely accepted) as well as an ATM card. Check with your bank prior to departure to ensure your ATM card is usable overseas.

HOW MUCH LUGGAGE SHOULD I TAKE?

Due to limited space on the tour motor coach, you may only bring ONE suitcase and ONE carry-on. Limit your suitcase size to no larger than 29 x 20 x 10 and your carry-on to no larger than 8 x 16 x 21. Check your airline's website for any additional luggage restrictions. Keep in mind that throughout the duration of the tour, you are responsible for your own luggage, so do not pack more than you can carry. Laundry facilities are available in major cities.

WHAT SHOULD I PACK?

The easiest way to make your tour stressful is to over pack! See details in the Planning & Packing section on your trip's Toolbox pages. Download our suggested packing list.

WHAT ABOUT PACKING DOCUMENTS?

Never pack your passport! Always keep it with you. The same goes for cash and credit cards. Pack 2 extra passport photos if possible (in the event that you misplace your passport); photo copies of your passport's personal data pages, your flight itinerary and e-ticket information; a listing of your credit card; and copies of any personal IDs. This info will be extremely valuable should you lose any actual documents. Always keep actual documents on your person, and never in your checked suitcase.

SHOULD I PURCHASE TRAVEL INSURANCE?

We highly recommend travel insurance. (Some schools or alumni associations may offer travel insurance to you at a reduced rate.) If not, AESU also offers group travel insurance. Ask our reservations agent for details or click on this link:

<https://www.tripassure.com/main/?welcome=AESU3922MD>

PLANNING YOUR TRIP

WHAT ARE HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS LIKE?

We stay in superior tourist class hotels, 3-star or 4-star, all with private bath/shower. Our hotels have been especially selected for their European atmosphere, friendly hospitality, cleanliness and location.

TOUR ROOMING POLICY: If you are traveling alone and do not want a single room, we will attempt to arrange for a 2-share room. If this is not possible, we will make arrangements for a single room and charge the applicable single supplement.

You'll be furnished a complete hotel address list with your final documents. Properties are subject to change and any substitutions would be the equivalent of those listed. For independent hotel reservations such as pre/post nights, etc., and select special tours, a single supplement is always applied. Please check your itinerary.

I DON'T HAVE A ROOMMATE, WHAT DO I DO?

Going solo is not a problem with AESU. Many of our participants don't have a travel companion when booking a trip. If you're traveling alone, we will attempt to arrange for you to share a room (same gender) at no extra cost. (See above rooming policy for details)

I KNOW SOME MEALS ARE INCLUDED, BUT WHAT ABOUT SPECIAL DIETARY NEEDS?

Tours include breakfast daily, lunches & dinner as per itinerary. If you are a vegetarian, or have special dietary needs, please add this to your account when booking. All included meals are pre-paid, so a substitute meal is always up to the goodwill of the establishment. We cannot guarantee that all special requests will be granted, but, in the past, most restaurants have been cooperative. Please keep in mind that substitute meals may not be as varied as they are at home.

DO I NEED ANY VACCINATIONS?

Check with your doctor or the CDC (www.nccdc.gov/travel) to find out if vaccinations are required. If you suffer from any form of illness, be sure to have an adequate supply of medicines before departing on your trip. You must advise us of any important medical condition you may have, before departure.

DOES AESU SUPPORT ECO TRAVEL?

Every traveler shares a common responsibility to preserve our planet's environment and respect its people. AESU enthusiastically endorses ASTA's 10 Commandments, which effectively reaffirm that responsibility. Let's live by these Commandments, to ensure our world's beauty is preserved for our generation and for generations to come. Thank you for the opportunity to travel together and to discover our remarkable world in a responsible manner. Over a decade ago AESU founded "TRAVEL FOR GOOD" – many years before large travel companies became active in environmental travel.
