IRELAND
A JOURNEY THROUGH ART AND CULTURE

MARCH 18–26, 2016
Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum Ireland Tour
MARCH 18–26, 2016

Join the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum on an exclusive arts and culture journey around six counties of Ireland, where Caitlín Doherty, Broad MSU Curator and Deputy Director of Curatorial Affairs, will introduce you to some of Ireland’s most important art institutions. Enjoy access to private collections along with a VIP preview of 2116: Irish Contemporary Art, co-curated by Caitlín Doherty and Christopher Clarke, Chief Curator of the Glucksman Gallery, University College Cork.

With a cultural heritage dating back to time immemorial, Ireland is known around the world as a place of art, music, and spirit. Explore Irish art from its earliest beginnings right through to newly commissioned contemporary works in this Journey Through Art and Culture while enjoying some of the most exquisite accommodations Ireland has to offer.

Trip including lodging and land and air transportation is $4,395.
A processing fee of $195 is waived for Director’s Club members ($4,200). $500 of the fee is tax-deductible. A Single Room supplement, add $1,149. A deposit of $500 per person is due at the time of registration. Registration closes and final payment is due December 21, 2015.
