|         | DAY 4 - AMSTERDAM – GERMANY’S RHINE VALLEY                                                                                              | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: Dutch-Indonesian “Rice Table” welcome dinner |}
|         | Cross the German border into Cologne, famous for the world's largest Gothic cathedral that took over 600 years to complete. From Cologne we cruise down the fabled Rhine River past steeply sloped vineyards, medieval castles, and the legendary Lorelei Rock. Tonight, enjoy traditional German fare. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 5 - RHINE VALLEY - MUNICH                                                                                                          | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: Dutch-Indonesian “Rice Table” welcome dinner |}
|         | This morning, we continue to the Bavarian capital of Munich, host city of the Oktoberfest, where we’ll see the Glockenspiel chimes in the Town Hall Square and the world-renowned Hofbräuhaus. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 6 - MUNICH – INNSBRUCK - AUSTRIAN ALPS                                                                                              | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: Dutch-Indonesian “Rice Table” welcome dinner |}
|         | We drive along the “Romantic Road” past the Bavarian lake district and the Zugspitze, Germany’s highest mountain, to Innsbruck, surrounded by majestic snowcapped mountain peaks. Visit the Golden Roof of Friedrich the Penniless, the Royal palace and the giant Olympic Ski Jump. Enjoy a dinner of Austrian specialties tonight. |                            |                                                            |

|         | The snow-covered peaks of the Alps loom above us as we journey over the Brenner Pass. We’ll leave the mountains behind as we enter sunny Italy and arrive in Venice on the Adriatic Sea. Here we'll walk through narrow streets and alleys lined with old-world shops and watch skilled artisans in a Murano glass-blowing workshop make Venetian glass. A trip along the Grand Canal fills us with the romance, mystery and intrigue of Old Venice. Leisure time may find you on a gondola gliding past moonlit palaces. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 8 - VENICE – ROME                                                                                                                  | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: Dutch-Indonesian “Rice Table” welcome dinner |}
|         | “The Highway of the Sun” weaves its way through medieval hillside villages to the Eternal City of Rome. Tonight indulge in a lavish Roman Banquet complete with mouth-watering Italian specialties and wine. Then our illumination drive takes us by this fascinating city’s ancient ruins. |                            |                                                            |

|         | A free day in Rome to view the Colosseum where gladiators fought to death and the Forum Romanum where Caesar was assassinated in 44 B.C. Consider a visit to Vatican City, the world’s smallest state, to visit St. Peter's Basilica housing Michelangelo's magnificent “Pieta.” Stop to throw 3 coins in the Trevi Fountain to ensure your return to Rome. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 10 - ROME - FLORENCE                                                                                                               | Breakfast                  | Optional activity: City tour of Rome with local historian   |
|         | We journey through the Chianti vineyards to the cultural magnificence of Florence, birthplace of Michelangelo. We'll follow our art historian guide past the Ponte Vecchio bridge, the Gates of Paradise, Giotto's Belltower and more. After sundown, you can watch the carnival of street performers at the piazza del Duomo. Get ready for an optional dinner of pure Italian delights at a rustic Florentine trattoria tonight. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 11 - FLORENCE – SWISS ALPS                                                                                                         | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: Tuscan feast                            |
|         | From Piazzale Michelangelo, we view the sunlit rooftops of Florence and bid her a fond adieu. Today, experience another dramatic change of scenery as our motor coach continues on our way to the Swiss Alps. Climb high over the St. Gotthard Pass surrounded by snow-dusted peaks and chalet-studded valleys below. On the other side of the pass is the Four Forest Cantons Lake whose shore leads us to the land of William Tell and shops filled with Swiss watches and chocolates. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 12 - SWISS ALPS – Train to PARIS                                                                                                    | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: French cabaret                          |
|         | Enjoy some leisure time this morning before boarding our train to Paris, the “City of Romance.” Our route takes us through the Swiss border town of Basel into France where we'll pass quaint chateaux and Burgundy vineyards. Consider joining our optional can-can Cabaret Show tonight. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 13 - PARIS                                                                                                                         | Breakfast                  | Optional activity: French cabaret                          |
|         | An introduction to Paris' familiar landmarks takes us past the Opéra, the Arc de Triomphe, Champs Elysées, the Eiffel Tower, as well as the hunchback “Quasimodos” beloved Notre Dame. We’ll also visit a local perfume center. Spend the free afternoon exploring the Paris that appeals to you most: cultural Paris including the Louvre Museum or fashionable Paris with Cardin. Sampling pastries goes with either choice. Enjoy French cuisine at our bistro dinner tonight followed by a cruise on a glass-topped “bateau” gliding down the Seine through the heart of the city. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 14 - TRAVEL HOME or continue to LONDON via EUROSTAR                                                                               | Breakfast                  | Optional activity: French cabaret                          |
|         | For some of us the tour of Europe ends in Paris this morning. Bid farewell to friends and ‘à bientôt’ to France before jetting back home with memories to last a lifetime. For the rest of us: The Eurostar train whisks us to London in under 3 hours. Upon arrival, take advantage of your 24-hour hop-on hop-off bus ticket to explore London town on your own. See Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, Piccadilly Circus and Trafalgar Square. Tonight, consider a West End Show or go hobnobbing with royalty at a posh night club. |                            |                                                            |
|         | DAY 15 - LONDON                                                                                                                        | Breakfast, Dinner          | Optional activity: French cabaret                          |
|         | Enjoy a day at your leisure and further explore the city of pomp and pageantry with your bus ticket. Visit one of London's many fabulous museums or take a tour of Shakespeare’s Globe Theater. Last minute shopping at Harrod’s in the fashionable area of Knightsbridge is a must. Tonight's farewell fish & chips dinner will be at a typical British pub. |                            |                                                            |

Dear Alumni & Friends:

The Michigan State University Alumni Association invites you on a whirlwind tour of Europe’s most intriguing countries.

Our journey starts with the colorful canals of amazing Amsterdam; medieval castles of Germany’s legendary Rhine Valley bring us to the fun Oktoberfest city of Munich.

After conquering the snow-capped Austrian Alps, we explore romantic Venice and the ancient ruins of Caesar’s Rome. Michelangelo’s magnificent Florence is followed by Swiss cuckoo clocks and chocolate by the lovely Lake Lucerne. Burgundy chateaux and vineyards line the way to dazzling Paris and our final farewell. Opt to continue onto London for a 2-night stay in the city of pomp and pageantry.

You will have:

• The opportunity to travel with other MSU alumni
• The benefit of having all of the leg work done for you with the flexibility of independent choices
• Personal enrichment: insights into other people, places, and cultures

Education is a lifelong process, and travel is a fantastic way to augment your knowledge.

The details about this wonderful European journey are included in this brochure.

After reviewing the information, we hope you’ll agree -- this exciting adventure is the perfect way to expand your horizons.

Enjoy this super sampling of Europe’s great diversity.

We hope you will join your fellow MSU alumni in 2014!

Go Green,
