DEAR MSU ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Imagine a region of unparalleled natural bounty and spellbinding beauty, where majestic waterfalls plunge down mossy cliffs and powerful rivers flow through deep, awe-inspiring gorges edged by steep canyon walls, rugged high desert and mountains swathed in dense, emerald forests. From Portland to Clarkston, cruise the mighty Columbia and Snake Rivers aboard the American Empress, the largest and most elegant riverboat west of the Mississippi, and experience this pristine, captivating corner of America—the Pacific Northwest.

Your adventure begins with a stay in Vancouver, Washington, just minutes from Portland, Oregon’s magnetic cultural haven. Then board the grand American Empress, a modern vessel exuding the charm and lavish features of a 19th-century riverboat, and watch breathtaking, ever-changing scenery glide by as you cruise to quaint riverside towns and memorable historic sites. Visit the oldest city west of the Rockies, Astoria, where splendid Victorian homes and maritime relics mingle with trendy cafes and shops. Human ingenuity and Mother Nature’s incredible power intertwine in Stevenson, Washington, gateway to the iconic Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum and Bonneville Dam. Explore The Dalles—the end of the Oregon Trail—where lovely scenery and small-town charm abound, followed by Sacajawea State Park, the site of Lewis and Clark’s 1805 campsite. Conclude your voyage in Clarkston, Washington, where the nearby Nez Perce National Historic Park celebrates the area’s rich Native American culture.

Experience spectacular northwest landscapes, storied towns, and the excitement of river boating along with fellow alumni as you discover the timeless allure of the river aboard the graceful American Empress. Your cruise includes fresh regional cuisine, elegant accommodations and fascinating shore excursions.

Reserve your spot on this remarkable riverboat voyage by May 29, 2014, to receive the special offers*, including a one-night pre-cruise hotel stay in Vancouver and a $100 onboard credit per stateroom.

Welcome to the magnificent Pacific Northwest, where the Columbia and Snake Rivers wind through gentle hills, imposing mountains, dramatic canyons and fertile fields. The land appears today much like it did to Lewis and Clark in 1805—majestic, unspoiled and unimaginably glorious. From the awe-inspiring beauty of the Columbia River Gorge and the cascading majesty of Multnomah Falls to the masterfully crafted wines of Washington’s celebrated wine country, treat yourself to the region’s unforgettable natural wonders and attractions.

The incredible scenery and intriguing history of the Great American West come to life on board the American Empress, your floating boutique hotel. Enjoy casual elegance and sweeping river views aboard the largest and most elegant riverboat in the Pacific Northwest, combining Victorian-inspired décor with frontier flair. Unwind in the Paddlewheel Lounge and sample regional cuisine in the beautifully appointed dining room. And at the end of the day, retreat to the comfort of your fine accommodations.

Discover one of America’s most treasured, bountiful regions on a journey aboard the 223-passenger American Empress, specifically designed to celebrate the centuries-old tradition of exploration in the west. Experience the rich beauty, history and adventure unique to the river boating tradition from the remarkable perspective of the river.

Experience the Pacific Northwest, where diverse landscapes intertwine to form an incredibly gorgeous painting, stirred to life by the cool, gentle breeze. Here nature reveals her unimaginable beauty and range—from surreal, emerald forests and sparkling waterfalls to near-desert bluffs and staggering, vertical canyon walls. Carved by dramatic landslides, volcanic upheavals, and raging floods thousands of years ago, these rugged lands provide some of the most astounding scenery in America. From the decks of the American Empress, discover this renowned region in perfect elegance and ease, as scenes of unspoiled natural glory unfold one by one.

Among the many included excursions, you can visit the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum and learn about the incredible geological forces that shaped this astounding region, and discover Native American legends, petroglyphs, and other captivating artifacts and exhibits. Visit the first dam built on the Columbia River, the Bonneville Dam, a National Historic Landmark and a monument to human ingenuity with its massive turbines and fascinating fish ladders.

PREMIUM CHOICE TOURS will also be offered in each port of call for an additional charge. Itinerary, hotel and shore excursions are subject to change.
Life on the Water

Life on the American Empress is as unique and enriching as the riverboat tradition itself. Night after night, music fills the majestic showroom, elegantly furnished with crystal chandeliers, glorious period-wallpaper, and comfortable seating, reminiscent of a lumber baron’s estate home. By day, the Riverlorian, your onboard historian, offers lectures and tales of the frontier. The River Grille and Paddlewheel Lounge are meeting points for old and new friends. And the elaborate Romanov Dining Room, reflecting the Northwest’s rich Russian influence is graced with gilded columns, rich marble, and jewel-toned upholstery—the perfect backdrop to sample inspired regional dishes.

Itinerary

Aug 13 The Dalles, Oregon
This quintessential frontier town rests on a crescent bend of the Columbia River, between Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams, and welcomes visitors with its picturesque backdrop of forests, orchards and high desert. Once known as the end of the Oregon Trail, The Dalles occupied a strategic transfer point for west-bound pioneers heading to the Willamette Valley.

Included Excursion The hop-on, hop-off motor coach makes stops at the Original Courthouse Museum, known as the first courthouse west of the Rocky Mountains; The Dalles Visitor’s Center; the Fort Dalles Museum and Interpretive Center, which showcases unique military and pioneer remnants, including Oregon Trail wagons; the downtown shopping district; and Sunshine Mill Winery, a state-of-the-art boutique winery housed in a 130-year-old abandoned wheat mill.

Aug 14 Sacajawea State Park, Washington
At the confluence of the Snake and Columbia Rivers, this 284-acre park occupies the former site of Ainsworth, a 19th-century railroad town. The land also holds unique history—in 1805, Lewis and Clark and their Shoshone Indian guide camped here during their fabled expedition. Sacajawea State Park features a blend of ponds, marshes, sand dunes, and over 9,000 feet of freshwater shoreline, as well as an interpretive center. Nearby, you’ll find Washington’s famed Walla Walla Valley, home to the region’s award-winning wineries.

Included Excursion Visit Sacajawea State Park and its interpretive center, featuring Lewis and Clark-themed exhibits and Native American implement displays; followed by the Country Mercantile Store, a working farm and shop offering agricultural demonstrations, gourmet foods and other unique local gifts.

Aug 15 River Cruising

Aug 16 Clarkston, Washington
Situated in the beautiful Lewis-Clark Valley—the centuries-old home of the Nez Perce Indians—are the sister cities of Lewiston, Idaho and Clarkston, Washington. Founded in the 19th century as a way station for travelers bound for the Idaho goldfields, today Clarkston is famed as the gateway to Hells Canyon, North America’s deepest river gorge.

Included Excursion In the morning, stop at Nez Perce National Historical Park, which chronicles the indigenous tribe and its relationship with the Corps of Discovery expedition. Then explore Clarkston’s downtown shopping district at your leisure.

Aug 17 Clarkston, Washington
Disembark in the morning and bid farewell to the American Empress. Transfers to Spokane, for return flights home, are an additional cost and should be scheduled to depart after 10am.

Note: If you are interested in an optional Premium Choice Tour of Spokane, your return flight should be scheduled to depart from Spokane after 7pm. Many of the late departures from Spokane are overnight flights.
