<td>DAY 1</td>
<td>TRAVEL TO LONDON\nEmbark on your overnight flight to London.</td>
<td>In-flight</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 2</td>
<td>LONDON\nYour hotel is available for check-in after 2:00 pm. Enjoy the day exploring London on your own. Tonight, meet fellow travelers and your tour director for our welcome orientation and pub crawl.</td>
<td>In-flight</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 3</td>
<td>LONDON - EUROSTAR train to AMSTERDAM via BRUSSELS\nTravel through the “Chunnel” below the English Channel to Amsterdam, land of windmills and tulips. Free time this afternoon to tour the Van Gogh or Rijksmuseum with Rembrandt’s “Night Watch,” the Anne Frank house, or shop for famous Delftware china. Later we invite you on a boat cruise on the canals of Amsterdam following our Dutch-Indonesian “Rice Table” dinner.</td>
<td>Breakfast, Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 4</td>
<td>AMSTERDAM – GERMANY’S RHINE VALLEY\nThis morning we cross the German border into the amazing Rhine Valley. Stop in Cologne, famous for the world’s largest gothic cathedral. Enjoy typical German fare at a local restaurant tonight.</td>
<td>Breakfast, Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 5</td>
<td>RHINE VALLEY - MUNICH\nWe continue to the Bavarian capital of Munich, host city of the Oktoberfest, where we’ll see the Glockenspiel chimes in the Town Hall Square and the world-renowned Hofbräuhaus.</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 6</td>
<td>MUNICH - AUSTRIAN ALPS\nThis morning our journey leads us to the magnificent, snow-capped Alps. Go for a hike through the alpine meadows and take time to appreciate the natural beauty of the region or visit a nearby village with picture-postcard chalets and flower-filled window boxes. Relax and enjoy a hearty Austrian dinner tonight.</td>
<td>Breakfast, Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 7</td>
<td>AUSTRIAN ALPS - VENICE\nWe’ll make a dramatic descent from the Alps into Venice on the Adriatic Sea. Here we’ll walk through narrow streets and alleys lined with old-world shops and watch skilled artisans in a Murano glass-blowing workshop make Venetian glass. A trip along the Grand Canal fills us with the romance, mystery, and intrigue of Old Venice. Leisure time may find you on a gondola gliding past moonlit palaces.</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 8</td>
<td>VENICE - ROME\n“We The Highway of the Sun” weaves its way through medieval hillside villages to the Eternal City of Rome. Enjoy an evening at your leisure.</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 9</td>
<td>ROME *\nOptional city tour with local historian\nDuring free time, visit the Colosseum where gladiators fought to the death and the Forum Romanum where Caesar was assassinated in 44 B.C. Continue to explore Vatican City, the world’s smallest state, to visit St. Peter’s Basilica housing Michelangelo’s magnificent “Pieta.” Stop to throw three coins in the Trevi Fountain to ensure your return to Rome. Tonight indulge in a lavish Roman Banquet complete with mouth-watering Italian specialties and wine. Following dinner, our illumination drive takes us by this fascinating city’s ancient ruins.</td>
<td>Breakfast, Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 10</td>
<td>ROME - FLORENCE\nWe journey through the Chianti vineyards to the cultural magnificence of Florence, birthplace of Michelangelo. We’ll follow our art historian guide past the Ponte Vecchio bridge, the Gates of Paradise, Giotto’s Belltower and more. After sundown, you can watch the carnival of street performers at the Piazza del Duomo.</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 11</td>
<td>FLORENCE - SWISS ALPS\nFrom Piazzale Michelangelo, we view the sunlit rooftops of Florence and bid her “arrivederci.” Today, experience another dramatic change of scenery as our motor coach continues on its way to the Swiss Alps. Climb high over the St. Gotthard Pass surrounded by snow-dusted peaks and chalet-studded valleys below. On the other side of the pass is the Four Forest Cantons Lake whose shore leads us to the land of William Tell and shops filled with Swiss watches and chocolates.</td>
<td>Breakfast, Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 12</td>
<td>SWISS ALPS - TRAIN to PARIS\nEnjoy some leisure time this morning before boarding our train to Paris, the “City of Romance.” Our route takes us through the Swiss border town of Basel into France where we’ll pass quaint chateaux and Burgundy vineyards. Tonight be dazzled by the show of spotlighted statues and fountains of Paris.</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 13</td>
<td>PARIS *\nOptional French Cabaret Show\nAn introduction to Paris’ familiar landmarks takes us past the Opéra, the Arc de Triomphe, Champs Elysées, the Eiffel Tower, as well as the hunchback “Quasimodo’s” beloved Notre Dame. We’ll also visit a local perfume center. Spend the free afternoon exploring the Paris that appeals to you most: cultural Paris including the Louvre Museum or fashionable Paris with Cardin. After our farewell French bistro dinner, consider an optional can-can cabaret show tonight.</td>
<td>Breakfast, Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAY 14</td>
<td>TRAVEL HOME\nYour land tour ends with breakfast this morning. Europe’s scenic vistas melt into the distance as we head for home.</td>
<td>In-flight</td>

Dear Alumni & Friends:

The Michigan State University Alumni Association invites you on a whirlwind tour of Europe’s most intriguing countries.

Our journey starts with the pomp and pageantry of London and the colorful canals of amazing Amsterdam; medieval castles of Germany’s legendary Rhine Valley bring us to the fun Oktoberfest city of Munich.

After conquering the snow-capped Austrian Alps, we explore romantic Venice and the ancient ruins of Caesar’s Rome. Michelangelo’s magnificent Florence is followed by Swiss cuckoo clocks and chocolate by the lovely Lake Lucerne. Burgundy chateaux and vineyards line the way to dazzling Paris and our final farewell.

You will have:

- The opportunity to travel with other MSU alumni
- The benefit of having all of the leg work done for you with the flexibility of independent choices
- Personal enrichment: insights into other people, places, and cultures

Education is a lifelong process, and travel is a fantastic way to augment your knowledge.

The details about this wonderful European journey are included in this brochure.

After reviewing the information, we hope you’ll agree -- this exciting adventure is the perfect way to expand your horizons.

Enjoy this super sampling of Europe’s great diversity.

We hope you will join your fellow MSU alumni in 2013!

Go Green,

Regina Cross
