Discover the rustic glamour of Bar Harbor, Campobello Island and St. Andrews by-the-Sea. Favored at the turn of the 20th century by rich and powerful families along the U.S. East Coast and in Ottawa and Montréal, these remote summer seaside resorts offered fresh air, pristine scenery and rugged outdoor pursuits like sailing and hiking — a welcome change from the hectic pace of city life. Visit Bar Harbor, the famous Maine resort that is known just as much as a hub of the state’s famous lobster industry as it is for being the summer home of the Vanderbilts, Morgans, Astors and other powerful families. Get to know Campobello Island, best known as the summertime home of the Roosevelt family. Here, you’ll stay in the restored authentic “cottages” built by the families who lived here and discover the island’s allure. Your journey concludes in St. Andrews by-the-Sea, Canada’s first seaside resort, overlooking the sapphire waters of the Bay of Fundy.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS
- Your exclusive Small-Group experience is limited to 28 travelers to maximize your travel experience.

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

DAY 1 ~ IN TRANSIT/BAR HARBOR, MAINE
Depart for Bangor, Maine.*
Upon arrival, transfer to Bar Harbor on Mount Desert Island and The Harborside Hotel.
Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a Welcome Reception and Dinner.
* Provided for AHI FlexAir participants.

DAY 2 ~ BAR HARBOR
Excursion: Bar Harbor, Lobster Town, Summer Resort and More.
The first settlers arrived here in 1763, and the town gained notoriety as a playground of the rich and famous during the mid-1800s when several of the United States’ most powerful families — the Astors, Rockefellers, Vanderbilts and Morgans, among others — began building summer homes here. After learning about the town’s most famous residents, visit the Abbe Museum. This Smithsonian Affiliate is dedicated to the culture and history of the Wabanaki Nations. Then cruise Frenchman Bay aboard a traditional lobster boat and learn about the state’s lobster industry.

DAY 3 ~ CAMPOBELLO ISLAND, NEW BRUNSWICK
Excursion: Go East.
Visit Quoddy Head State Park and the easternmost point in the United States. See the distinctive red-and-white striped lighthouse, West Quoddy Head Light. The park is an excellent place to see a variety of birds, and look offshore for a possible sighting of humpback, minke and finback whales.

Excursion: FDR’s Summer Retreat.
After crossing the border, delve into the history of Campobello Island, another elite summer enclave. Stroll through the gardens and grounds of Roosevelt Campobello International Park, which is owned and operated by both the United States and Canada. The park is centered around Franklin D. Roosevelt’s 34-room “cottage.” The home, typical of the cottages built by summer visitors, is filled with original memorabilia.

DAY 4 ~ CAMPOBELLO ISLAND
Excursion: The Beloved Island.
Discover why FDR called Campobello his “beloved island.” Take a drive around the island on former carriage roads that visitors of yesteryear used to visit scenic spots.

Educational Focus: Tea with Eleanor. Eleanor Roosevelt enjoyed afternoon tea daily. Sip a cup of tea and learn about her life on the island.

Local Flavors: Enjoy a picnic lunch and a barbecue dinner.

Educational Focus: Local Lore. A local storyteller shares the legends of the area’s First Nation people.

DAY 5 ~ CAMPOBELLO ISLAND
Excursion: A Whale of a Time.
Learn about the local whale rescue and the Canadian Whale Institute before embarking on a whale-watching cruise on the Bay of Fundy. A naturalist will provide information about the whales and other wildlife that live in and around the bay.

DAY 6 ~ ST. ANDREWS BY-THE-SEA
Excursion: St. Croix Island.
Your journey to St. Andrews by-the-Sea takes you briefly back into Maine, where you will visit St. Croix Island. In 1604, a group of French explorers, including Samuel Champlain, landed here. Continue to St. Andrews and The Algonquin Resort.

Excursion: Kingsbrae Garden.
Explore St. Andrews’ lush, colorful garden, which features traditional and modern gardening styles.

DAY 7 ~ ST. ANDREWS
Excursion: St. Andrews’s U.S. Connection.
St. Andrews, named after the city in Scotland, was founded by British loyalists south of the border. Learn more about the city’s history as you make your way through the historic district. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a Farewell Reception and Dinner.

DAY 8 ~ IN TRANSIT
Transfer to the airport for the return flight to your gateway city.*

NOTE: The information presented is preliminary. Itineraries, included features and schedules are subject to change. Many excursions in this program involve an element of walking.

ACCOMMODATIONS
THE HARBORSIDE HOTEL
Bar Harbor
This resort hotel is ideally located in the heart of Bar Harbor near both the town’s attractions and Acadia National Park. Enjoy the amenities of the Bar Harbor Club, including an oceanside pool, tennis courts and more. The hotel also has a spa, two restaurants and three bars.

CAMPOBELLO COTTAGES
Campobello Island
The turn-of-the-century homes within Roosevelt Campobello International Park were once the summer getaway of wealthy East Coast families longing to leave behind the bustle of New York and as an alternative to the glitzy summer retreat of Newport, Rhode Island. Campobello became their rustic sanctuary. Simple in comparison to the ostentatious Newport mansions that also were called cottages, the Campobello cottages were humble, but very comfortable lodgings for their well-heeled residents. Today, the cottages, outfitted with period furniture and antiques, have been updated with modern conveniences.

THE ALGONQUIN RESORT
St. Andrews by-the-Sea
Since it opened in 1889, The Algonquin Resort inaugurated the town of St. Andrews by-the-Sea as Canada’s first seaside resort. The hotel, which recently reopened after undergoing a yearlong restoration project, takes guests back in time while still offering every modern convenience. Enjoy a spa, indoor and outdoor pools, a gym, tennis courts, excellent cuisine, Wi-Fi throughout the resort and more.
