Itinerary is subject to change.
EDINBURGH (LEITH), SCOTLAND
One of Europe’s most attractive cities, Edinburgh is a marvelous mix of elegant streets, charming squares, and quaint alleyways. The city’s most distinctive landmark is Edinburgh Castle, set high up on a craggy cliff in the center of the city.

INVERGORDON, SCOTLAND
Invergordon, a seaport in northern Scotland, has long been recognized for its rich naval history. Northern Scotland, known as the Highlands, is one of the most scenic places in Europe, a landscape of mountains and forested hills. Venture into the Highlands where the local clan castles perch on rugged hills.

LERWICK (SHETLAND ISLANDS), SCOTLAND
Enjoy a taste of the Highlands on a drive through the island’s rugged moors, beautiful valleys, and flower-filled meadows with romping Shetland ponies. Visit quaint villages like Scalloway with its ruined castle, or explore the fascinating Jarlshof prehistoric site, occupied for several thousand years.

ÅLESUND, NORWAY
In 1904, much of Alesund was destroyed by fire, but the town was quickly rebuilt in the period’s popular Art Nouveau style. Soaring turrets, spires, and beautiful ornamentation adorn the buildings throughout Alesund, giving it a distinctive flair and earning the town a revered architectural reputation. An evening departure allows you plenty of time to explore its many attractions, such as the spectacular Art Nouveau Centre museum, scenic Town Park, and Atlantic Sea Park, one of Europe’s largest aquariums. For a look at modern Norwegian woodworking, visit the impressive Gallery Cylindra. Many of Alesund’s squares feature sculptures commemorating significant events, including the town’s rich fishing history and Norway’s contribution to World War II.

GEIRANGER (NORDFJORD), NORWAY
Geiranger nestles in a small valley at the inland tip of Geirangerfjord, which is unabashedly called “the most beautiful fjord in the world.” The scenery is absolutely stunning in every direction, so it’s no wonder that the first cruise ship arrived here in 1869. Snow-mantled mountains rise majestically from the glacier-carved fjord. Waterfalls burst forth from the cliffs and thunder into the deep, serene water. Emerald-green forests blanket the hillsides. If you are feeling ambitious, you might follow one of the many nature trails out of Geiranger, or simply take in the magnificent views as you meander the storybook streets.

HELLESYLT, NORWAY
Norway’s oldest Viking port, historic Hellesylt nestles in a fairy-tale setting deep in the majestic fjord country, at the head of scenic Sunnyslvfjord. Surrounded by ruggedly steep cliffs, pristine mountain lakes, and verdant forests, this tiny village of 600 or so residents couldn’t be more picturesque or pastoral. The area is hauntingly silent, but for the sound of glacier-fed Hellesylt waterfall crashing over the granite cliffs into the placid waters of the fjord. The scenery around Hellesylt is so dramatic that it inspired Henrik Ibsen’s early play “Brand.”

BELFAST, NORTHERN IRELAND
Discover this city of ornate Victorian and Edwardian architecture, gracious gardens, and friendly pubs. Or, see the natural phenomenon of the Giant’s Causeway, a stunning geological anomaly of tightly packed, uneven basalt columns disappearing into the sea.

DUBLIN, IRELAND
Cosmopolitan Dublin is the capital and largest city in Ireland. Visit historic Trinity College and see the magnificently decorated Book of Kells. Tour majestic St. Patrick’s Cathedral, where Jonathan Swift is buried, and stroll through lovely St. Stephen’s Green, a picturesque city park immortalized by James Joyce in Ulysses.

CORK (COBH), IRELAND
Cheerful Cork sprawls about the River Lee in one of Ireland’s most stunning settings. Bridges crisscross the city leading to landmarks like St. Anne’s Church and the Old City Gaol, where you’ll see the 19th-century prisoners’ graffiti. Consider traveling to Blarney Castle to kiss the legendary Blarney Stone.

PORTLAND (DORSET), UNITED KINGDOM
Joined to the mainland of Dorset by narrow Chesil Beach, Portland is in the heart of England’s dramatic Jurassic Coast, so called because its rock bed dates back 185 million years. The coastal cliffs and area’s unique flora and fauna are awe-inspiring; the perfect complement to the town’s rich history. Portland Castle overlooks the harbor and is one of Henry VIII’s best-preserved coastal fortifications. Portland Bill Lighthouse is another landmark, literally, and has been guiding sailors for more than 300 years. You may also enjoy walking to the abandoned Tout Quarry, which has been turned into a delightful stone sculpture park.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions; available for purchase approximately 4 months prior to departure.
