September 7 to 15, 2015

Join this exclusive French sojourn featuring a 2-night stay in the enchanting city of Paris, travel from the sun-drenched Rhône Valley through the heartland of France aboard the TGV high-speed train, and cruise through the best of the Burgundy, Beaujolais and Provence wine regions. Embark the M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY, one of the finest ships to ply the waterways of Europe, visit the wonderfully preserved Roman Amphitheater in Arles, the historic Papal Palace of Avignon and the Roman city of Orange; experience the renowned Côtes du Rhône wine region, and enjoy a walking tour of Lyon, France’s gastronomique gateway. An Aix-en-Provence Pre-Program Option immerses you in the vibrant culture of the Provencal region. The London Post-Program Option travels from Paris aboard the Eurostar train through the marvelously engineered Channel.

M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY

The deluxe M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY belongs to a new generation of small river ships and features the comforts of a deluxe floating hotel.

The ship offers 73 river-view Staterooms (from 161 square feet) and suites (up to 236 square feet), among which are the most spacious on any river ship in the world.

Staterooms are furnished with two twin beds (convertible to one queen-size bed) and have individual climate control, private bathroom with shower, satellite telephone, television and writing desk. Mozart Deck Staterooms feature a floor-to-ceiling sliding glass door with French balcony (iron railing).

Complimentary wine and beer are served with dinner in single, unassigned seatings.

Complimentary use of the QuietVox audio system is available to all passengers for shore excursions.
