JUNE 7-15, 2016

Join us on an exciting journey to visit the heart of Andalusia, many of the cities that are particularly Spanish — Seville and Granada for example — but also from the first hand as we are architectural marvels, such as the Alhambra in Granada and Seville’s Cathedral and Alcazar. Marvel at trained equestrians and their steeds at the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art. We will see the best of many southern Spain.

Travel experts have meticulously planned this exciting program. Enjoy prearranged hotel accommodations and an exclusive educational program that will provide you with the opportunity of seeing the people and the culture. The educational program features local speakers and in the hotel of our four-star Campus Malaga property.

This trip combines the second city and capital of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. You will enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group, and having the freedom to make your own discoveries.

Space is limited on this amazing journey, so be sure to make your reservations today.
in spectacular settings at several paradors, as the Alhambra. Sample the sherry of Jerez, Granada, and marvel at great monuments, such as the Alcázar and the Cathedral of Seville. Explore the great cities of Seville, Málaga and Granada. All this sets the stage for an exploration of southern Spain, is a showcase of some of Spain’s architectural glories. The Moors left their mark on Seville in the 11th century, by building the Alcázar and the Cathedral of Seville. The city was captured by Ferdinand and Isabella in 1492 and the Moors were evicted. The city is now a capital of Andalucía, the region of southern Spain.

Excursion: Ronda, one of Spain’s most picturesque towns, is built into a steep rock face. It is said to be the city where the gods once lived. The setting of Ronda is breathtaking, with views of the city stretching for miles. The town is a perfect example of Moorish architecture, with narrow streets and beautiful courtyards. It is a great place to spend an afternoon, walking around the town and taking in the scenery.

Local Flavor: Enjoy regional specialties at the Parador restaurant.

Day Six

GRANADA

Excursion: Alhambra and Sierra Nevada. The Alhambra was built by the Moors in the 13th century and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is one of the most beautiful buildings in the world. The Alhambra is a fortress, palace, and home to the Moorish kings of Granada. It is a great place to explore, with stunning gardens and beautiful courtyards.

Local Flavor: Enjoy a traditional Andalusian meal at a local restaurant.

Day Seven

MÁLAGA

Excursion: see the city’s beautiful cathedral and the Costa del Sol. Málaga is one of the most beautiful cities in Spain. It is a great place to relax and enjoy the sun. Take a stroll along the beach or visit one of the many museums in the city.

Local Flavor: Enjoy dinner at the Parador Málaga, a former Moorish fortress, and enjoy lunch at the Parador Alhambra.

Day Eight

JEREZ DE LA FRONTERA

Educational Focus: Jerez de la Frontera is known as the “Sherry Capital of the World.” It is home to the famous Jerez Sherry Festival, which takes place every year. Jerez is also known for its beautiful beaches and stunning countryside.

Local Flavor: Enjoy a shrimp boil at the Parador Jerez, a former Moorish fortress.

Day Nine

Local Flavor: Enjoy a farewell dinner at the Parador Jerez, a former Moorish fortress.

Graduation Ceremony and a Farewell Dinner.

Note: Itinerary subject to change. Some events on this tour are dependent on weather and local regulations. A final itinerary will be provided prior to departure.

Paradise for Foodies

Granada is known as the “Sherry Capital of the World.” It is home to the famous Jerez Sherry Festival, which takes place every year. Jerez is also known for its beautiful beaches and stunning countryside.

Flamenco's traditions of Indian, Arabic and Roma cultures, as flamenco features the oral, music and dance traditions of the Andalusians. Though you may see it performed in other parts of Spain, flamenco is at home in Andalucía. Flamenco’s music combines energetic hand movements and complex dance, with a cajón (percussion box) introduced by Spanish by the Flamen. The Flamen, often groups, are associated with flamenco art in Spain during the last centuries of the 17th century. The singing, dancing and guitar music that develop into flamenco is a blend of these cultures, plus influence from the developments of Spanish Sephardic Jewish communities. These movements connect with each other and work together to interpret the passions of the dance. Flamenco is one of the most popular dances in the world, but to become popular in a palenque (public place), first, many years, because the popularity of this powerful dance has transformed to also perform throughout Spain and on stages around the world, but at its heart, it is at home in Andalucía.

Join us on an exciting journey to Spain in the heart of Andalucía. Many of the things we see and experience are seasoned by two centuries of a rich history — that of the Moors, who ruled Spain from the 8th to 14th centuries; and that of the Christians, who conquered the peninsula in the 15th century. And no place is more terreibly rich in history than Andalucía; it is a place of romance, of passion, of mystery and of the unknown. Andalucía is full of history, romance, and adventure — a place that has captivated people for centuries. Andalucía is the birthplace of some of the greatest poets and writers in the world, including Miguel de Cervantes, the author of Don Quixote, and the tragic poet, Federico García Lorca. Andalucía is also the birthplace of many other famous personalities, such as the famous bullfighter, Juan Carlos Lamas, and the famous artist, Pablo Picasso.

Our personalized air program allows you to select your flying, hotel, class of service and dates of travel in consultation with one of our experienced Passenger Service Representatives. Airfare will vary, depending on airline, class of service and date of travel. In most cases, transfers between the airport and hotel will be included in the rate. In some cases, transfers may be charged at the time of booking.

AHI Travel recommends the purchase of trip cancellation insurance in the event of trip cancellation due to circumstances beyond the control of the traveler. AHI Travel offers the lowest rates for airfares on our programs. Airfare may become available closer to your travel dates, and subject to policy terms.
