Dear MSU Alumni and Friends,

From Istanbul to Athens, weave your way across the Aegean as you visit historic and spectacularly scenic ports in Turkey and Greece. Set off from Istanbul, the city astride two continents, and head to Dikili, a Turkish resort town surrounded by natural beauty and located a short distance from some of the best preserved ruins in the world, the ancient Greek city of Pergamum. Then cross the Aegean to Volos, a more contemporary city tucked into the picturesque foothills of Mount Pelion. Follow the seas eastward to Kusadasi, and the famed ruins of Ephesus, whose ancient Roman structures date from the second century, then sail to Rhodes, a historic island with a wealth of ancient archaeological monuments. Explore fascinating ancient villages and the stunning Palace of Knossos in Crete before concluding your cruise in the legendary city of Athens, home to the magnificent Acropolis.

A voyage with Oceania Cruises is like no other, a unique experience nothing short of a masterpiece. Cruise to celebrated ports aboard an elegant vessel that boasts some of the finest amenities at sea and exudes a warm, inviting ambiance. The ideal mid-sized Marina is luxurious, yet refreshingly casual; spacious, yet comfortably intimate. And with some of the best cuisine at sea and a staff that provides unparalleled service, this is truly cruising at its finest.

With such an exceptional vessel and popular itinerary, this cruise will fill up quickly. Space is limited, so you are encouraged to sign up now for your preferred stateroom or suite. PERGAMUM/DIKILI, TURKEY Perched on the Aegean Sea, the fishing village of Dikili abounds in natural beauty. A drive through the countryside reveals spectacular mountains, pine forests, olive groves, and thermal springs.
